

Ed Reed

Marty Cortelleso, 11, of Northfield gets some finishing touches added to his face paint by volunteer Tricia Middaugh of Westmont.

Dave's Day hits nothing but net

Dave's Day, an all-day celebration held in memory of Oakcrest High School teacher and basketball coach Dave Lewis of Northfield, was held at the Northfield Community School Saturday, March 20. The event featured youth basketball clinics, a three-on-three tournament, auctions, entertainment, a movie night and more, with proceeds benefiting the Northfield Education Foundation and the Covenant House of Atlantic City. Lewis, who passed away in June 2008 after a long battle with cancer, was a coach for Northfield All-Sports Association for many years.

Volunteers Kathy Thomas, left, and Christa Toner, both from Northfield, display one of the T-shirts honoring Coach Dave Lewis that were for sale for $10.

High school seniors get in on the action during the three-on-three basketball matchups in the afternoon.

Praise teams from the Central United Methodist Church in Northfield perform at the event. Three teams rotated throughout the afternoon.